

Cornell Notes Rubric

Page Set-up	8 All parts (name, date, class, period, and topic) are clearly labeled in the correct place	6 All parts but one (name, date, class, period, and topic) are clearly labeled in the correct place	4 Some parts (name, date, class, period, and topic) are labeled in the correct place	2 Missing 2 parts (name, date, class, period, and topic) but are correctly labeled	0 Missing 3 or more parts (name, date, class, period, and topic) and may not be in the proper location
Legibility	4 Neat and completely legible	3 Completely legible	2 Mostly legible	1 Mostly non-legible	0 Cannot read your writing
Length	3 Full page of notes	2 3/4 page of notes	1 1/2 page of notes	0 Less than 1/2
Notes	15 -Notes are accurate -Notes are paraphrased -Use of logical abbreviations -Key words have been highlighted/underlined -Ample additions have been made to notes	12 -Notes are accurate -Notes are paraphrased -Use of logical abbreviations -Some key words have been highlighted or underlined -Some additions have been made to notes	9 -Notes may/may not be accurate -Notes may/may not be paraphrased -Some use of abbreviations -No highlighting or underlining -No additions have been made to notes	6 -Notes are incomplete -No use of abbreviations	3 -Turned in a blank sheet of paper
Questions	10 -Questions check for understanding and directly reflect notes -# of questions reflect the amount of notes -Most questions are high level	8 -Questions check for understanding and directly reflect notes -# of questions reflect amount of notes -Most questions are medium to low level	5 -Questions are basic and may reflect notes -# of questions does not reflect amount of notes -Most questions are low level	3 Questions are limited and do not accurately reflect notes	0 No questions
Summary	10 Shows learning by effectively identifying all main ideas	8 Shows learning by effectively identifying some main ideas	5 Summary is a re-stating of notes but is connected to learning	3 Summary is a re-stating of notes and is not connected to learning (a reflection)	0 No summary